Guitarist/vocalist/band leader Gypsy Lou Szepvolgyi, a native of Hungary, is recognized as one of the top guitar players in the NW region of the U.S.

In his career, Gypsy Lou has performed with some of the music world's top names, including: The Legends of the Blues, Pinetop Perkins, Tim Turner, Kimball Conant, Willie 'Big Eye' Smith, Polly O'Kerry, Hubert Sumlin, Rusty Zynn, as well as numerous gigs with Russia's hottest blues band, The Blues Cousins.

Gypsy Lou has also played with Nigel Mack's Blues Attack, Kathy McDonald, the Blues Orbiters, Stickshift Annie, Raven Humphrey, Evan Johns, Nightsticks and many more.

Lou's scorching lead guitar work and vocal leadership has left audiences enthralled wherever he has appeared in both the U.S. and Europe. Gypsy Lou has been a regular at the Mt. Baker Blues Festival, with both his band and as a special guest.

Under his leadership, the Gypsy Lou Band offers a wide variety of musical styles, including traditional blues, zydeco, classic rock, renditions from the British Rock invasion and more. Wherever he goes, Gypsy Lou is well received for the international flavor and professional bandsmanship he brings to both the stage and the other musicians he appears with.
